The 2nd Annual ALL NATIONS Community Day Parade

Please mark your calendars for October 17, 2015 and plan to bring your family to the Virginia Beach Oceanfront—help make this the best parade ever!

All cultures and communities from throughout Hampton Roads area and beyond are welcome.

“Come celebrate our community’s cultural diversity together with the oldest African American Community in the United States right in the heart of Virginia Beach....SEATACK”

The 2015 “All Nations” celebration parade is looking for marching bands, performing groups, floats, stilt walkers, clowns, scouts, youth and community groups. More information will be available on the civic league website, at monthly meetings and here in the monthly newsletter.

If you are interesting in volunteering to assist with the parade in any way, please contact the Civic League 2nd Vice President, Elizabeth “GG” Mills. She welcomes all that are interested in helping.
